SPECIAL NOTICES. WONDER OF LITERATURE. SATURDAY'S EVENING TELEGRAM

WILL CONTAIN THE FIRST NUMBER OF THE SERIES OF SUPERNATURAL VISIONS OF QUEVEDO, THE GREAT SPANISH AUTHOR OF THE LAST

CENTURY, AMOS KENDALL, uster General of the United States under General

Jackson. THE ONLY ENGLISH TRANSLATION EXTANT. PREFACE TO THE SUPERNATURAL

"VISIONS OF QUEVEDO." The translator of the Visions of Quevedo can truly say that the pleasure he himself derived from their perusal in the foriginal alone, gave him the idea of translating them into English. It is believed that the present is the only English translation of the Visions of Quevedo, although they have been translated into many other languages, and into French on fewer than five several times, by as many different authors, the plan of which has been followed in the present version. The advertisement to a Partisan edition published in 1812 contains the following remarks:—The Visions are regarded as the most piquant production that ever came from the fruitful and ingenious pen of Quevedo, one of the best Spanish writers. In general the criticisms they present have much point, and do not fall in their application at the present day." THE VISIONS OF QUEVEDO.

To be commenced in the EVENING TELEGRAM, Satur day, October 9.
